30,000 Girl Scouts to Observe Organization's 50th Birthday

More than 30,000 Girl Scouts from Los Angeles County's 17 Councils will stage a gigantic celebration Saturday in the Los Angeles Memorial Sports Arena to celebrate the 50th Birthday of the Girl Scouts United States of America. The girls and their leaders will be guests of The May Co.

This year's event will be the biggest birthday party ever held, with over 15,000 Brownies attending the morning show starting at 9:15, and an equal number of Intermediates and Senior Girl Scouts attending the afternoon show which starts at 1:15.

John Preis, manager of South Bay May Co., will welcome both assemblies and a significant message will be delivered by Mrs. Daniel Spivey, vice chairman of Region 12 Girl Scouts.

THE HUGE audiences will be entertained by television personalities recording stars, exciting vaudeville acts, clowns, specially-conceived Girl Scout acts, and inspirational tableaux.

Included in the guest lineup are Chad Everett, co-star of ABC-TV's "The New Cheyenne Show," Paul Petersen from ABC-TV's "The Donna Reed Show," and popular Art Gilmore, who will preside as the master of ceremonies.

Music will be provided by Jerry Rosen's 26-piece Sports Arena Orchestra and Bob Mitchell will be at the Sports Arena organ.

high wire walker: The Sky-rollers, skating in the air; Big Babe, the elephant that's almost human; The Rhythm Masters and the dry-diving riot of Willy Keo.

Drill Teams from Downey and Culver City, a 70-girl Chorus from the East San Gabriel Council, and Troop 1838 Girl Scout Polynesian Dancers from Encino are features of the Girl Scout Participation acts.

All 17 councils from the Los Angeles County Council, including Aliso Grande (Lynwood), Burbank, Centinella Valley (Inglewood), East San Gabriel, El Monte-Puente, El Segundo, Glendale, Glendora, Green Willows (Bellflower), Long Beach, Los Angeles, Pasadena, Santa Anita (Arcadia), Santa Monica, Venice and Whittier have been invited to attend and participate in the program. These councils represent a roster of more than 100,000 girls.

HAPPY 50TH BIRTHDAY . . . Senior Scout Emily Ann Sullivan of Troop 941 and Brownie Boni Wolf of Troop 483, are assisted in lighting the candles on their birthday cake by television personality Paul Peterson of ABC-TV's "The Donna Reed Show." Paul, who also sings, will be one of many entertainers at the May Co. Girl Scout 50th Anniversary Party at the Sports Arena on Saturday.
